

Introducing FRIENDS of RADIATE

CATHCART YOUTH MINISTRY PARTNERSHIP (aka RADIATE) is a project shared among Cathcart Trinity, Cathcart United Free and Cathcart Baptist churches. Running for 10 years now, it continues to bear much fruit as the Senior Development Worker, Cara Wightman, and the part-time Youth Worker, work within congregational groups and in various outreach settings such as holiday club, the after-school drop-in, school chaplaincy and SU activities. These paid employees give leadership to a large pool of willing and gifted volunteers drawn from all three churches – partnership working at its best!

Radiate significantly contributes to some of the components that make our church family life so vibrant: the annual holiday club, Tuesday youth club, and Sunday morning bible classes to name but a few. All three churches appreciate the benefits for local witness, financial efficiency, and sharing the youth ministry seamlessly across three congregations.

However, in common with many other charities, the CYMP trustees, drawn from each of the three churches, have to continuously address financial resource issues. The tendency of grant-making bodies to prefer to fund new projects rather than core activities is one difficulty, as is the Partnership's absolute dependence on its partner churches for its core funding.

We are very grateful to those individuals (at present 34 in number) who have supported the work by becoming "Friends of Radiate" over the last 10 years, making contributions monthly by bank standing order, and, in most cases, signing a Gift Aid declaration which adds 25% to each gift completely painlessly!

We are sure that Radiate deserves more "FRIENDS" and would like to ask you seriously to consider safeguarding the future of this worthwhile ministry by making a regular financial commitment, of any amount, direct to the Partnership.

If you would like to become a FRIEND of RADIATE the process is simple:
